Notennow

1 adverbs of time

Gweyth can be added to nouns of time to make adverbs there is usually a 2nd mutation

Myttinweyth in the morning, during the morning, every morning

Nosweyth at night, in the night, during the night, every night

Sulweyth during Sunday, on Sunday

Also unweyth once diwweyth twice teyrgweyth thrice pedergweyth four times pypmgweyth five times hwegh gweyth six times

note: after five the adverb is usually written as two words.

2 gweth

This is the comparative of drog and combines with mil to make milweth a thousand times worse, there is also milwell a thousand times better.

Do not confuse milweth and milweyth

3 more adverbs

Banna is one of a collection of words or phrases meaning 'at all', usually used with the negative.

Ny wrug vy kewsel banna I didn't speak at all

Other such words are:

vyth: nyns esa den vyth ena there wasn't anyone at all there

Mann: ny allav vy klewes mann I can't hear at all

4 infix pronouns, so called because they are fixed between the particle and the verb.

We have used the possessive pronouns with the auxiliary verbs to make sentences with direct object pronouns

If you don't use the auxiliary verbs then you need to use the infix pronouns.

'm 'th⁵ 'n 's 'gan 'gas 's

Note only 'th⁵ causes a mutation and this is a special form of the 5th mutation

ev a wra ow gweles	ev a'm gwel	he sees me
hi a wra dha weles	hi a'th wel	she sees you ni a wra y weles	ni a'n gwel	we see him my a wra hy gweles	my a's gwel	I see her ty a wra agan gweles	ty a'gan gwel	you see us ev a wra agas gweles	ev a'gas gwel	he sees you hi a wra aga gweles	hi a's gwel	she sees them and of course the same thing applies in the other tenses

ev a wrug ow gweles	ev a'm gwelas	he saw me
hi a wrug dha weles	hi a'th welas	she saw you ni a wrug y weles	ni a'n gwelas	we saw him my a wrug hy gweles	my a's gwelas	I saw her ty a wrug agan gweles	ty a'gan gwelas	you saw us
ev a wrug agas gweles	ev a'gas gwelas	he saw you
hi a wrug aga gweles	hi a's gwelas	she saw them

To form the negative replace the a particle with ny and remember to use the conjugated form of the verb

Ev a'm gwelas	ny'm gwelas (ev)	my a's prenas	ny's prenis (vy)
he saw me	he didn't see me	I bought it	I didn't buy it

'm, and the other infix pronouns are often used in place of ow etc. to avoid awkward vowel combinations ha'm tas and my father, ha'th ki and your dog

my a'th pys 'I pray thee' is used as please, an alternative to mar pleg

Exercise 3 Oberen 3

Write a conversation for the following scenario. Gwra skrifa keskows rag an wel a sew:

You are being interviewed for a part-time job in a cancer charity shop. You can work 4 afternoons a week, but need to be home at 4 pm as your children will be home from school then. You have been looking after the children so have not worked for 10 years. You do have a letter from both the local vicar and your doctor to say you are of good character and are trustworthy. You will be asked why you want to work for a cancer charity shop so think of a good, simple reason. Respond to the interviewer's questions. The examiner will play the part of the interviewer and will speak first.

Exercise 4 Oberen 4

Write a letter to your sister. You must include the following points and you must begin and end your letter appropriately.

Do not attempt to translate the instructions below word for word.

There is no need to translate the French words underlined.

You are on holiday in France staying near Ancenis on the south bank of the Loire. You go swimming every day as you have rented a gite with a swimming pool. You visited the Puy du Fou where there are several shows. The children thought the best one was the Roman arena with the animals as there were lions and a tiger as well as a chariot race. Your youngest daughter thought the swings in the small play area was better than sitting watching lions and 'men in long shirts'. Everyone enjoyed the picnic by the lake especially the ice-creams. Tomorrow we are going to Angers to visit the chateau.

Ask your sister if her husband and sons are keeping well and tell her you will visit her next week.
