Future tense and Revision

Future Tense

1 The simplest way to form the future tense in Cornish is to use the present tense within a future context.

My a bren karr nowydh a-vorow      I shall buy a new car tomorrow

2 Another easy way is with gul + another verb

My a wra mos dhe Druru a-vorow.      I am going to Truro tomorrow.

Ny wrav vy mos dhe Druru a-vorow      I am not going to Truro tomorrow.

3 Not many verbs have a true future tense in Cornish, an exception is bos

bydhav	bydhydh	bydh
bydhyn	bydhowgh	bydhons

4 There are a few other verbs which have a future in the third person and can thus be used in the impersonal sense

	my a brenvydh	ty a brenvydh	ev/hi a brenvydh
